Dearest Jobies:

Leadership Weekend is coming soon ... May 2-4, 2008 is almost here.

We need your help. We need help designing a Leadership T-shirt and we need Jobies to act as Camp Counselors for the weekend event.

The theme for this year's GGC Leadership Weekend is: Leadership is the Heart of Job's Daughters. Please send a t-shirt design reflecting this theme to Pam Marsters by COB, February 28, 2008. If your t-shirt design is selected, you can attend Leadership Weekend and be a key contributor to the weekend event.

We are looking for previous Leadership Participants to act as Camp Counselors for this year's program.

We need a total of Eight Previous Leadership Participants: four individuals ages 13-14 (Jr. Counselors) and four individuals ages 15-20 (Senior Counselors). To apply please send an email to Pam Marsters at pam.marsters@gmail.com and write an essay outlining what skills you can demonstrate to the Jobies so that they can transfer the Leadership skills to themselves and back to others in their respective bethels. Please send this essay in by February 28, 2008.

Additionally, if you have signed petitions for two new Jobies who have been initiated in your bethels from July 1, 2007 to present, you can also attend Leadership Weekend and help share your successful recruiting techniques with others.

Finally, all of the Bethels in Virginia can send two participants to Leadership Weekend on May 2-4, 2008; details regarding selection and registration will be coming soon.

In the interim, if you have any ideas you would like to share regarding leadership weekend, please email them to Mom Mary Strehle at: mary2104@aol.com and/or Mom Pam at pam.marsters@gmail.com.

Jobie regards,

Mom Mary
